

BPAC 6-Hour Distance Classic

Amherst, NY

Event Description

The BPAC 6-Hour Distance Classic is an Ultra Long Distance Road Running Event sanctioned by the USATF.

It is unique in that instead of racing over a set distance the runners will run as far as they can within a 6-hour time limit.

Course Description

The race course utilizes the Ellicott Creek Trailway section of the Amherst Bike Path.

The START point is located at Trailway point A.0 which is near the north east corner of the north parking lot of the North Town Center (Formerly the Pepsi Center).

The START point is also the lap turn-around point. Each lap of the race course is about 3.25 miles.

The course runs over Amherst Highway Dept. designated Trailway points:

A.0 through A.6 then Turn RIGHT
points B.0 through B.6 then Turn Left points 0.5 through 1.4 then Turn left points A 1.0 through A.0 then REPEAT...